A Swindler from Baltimore Arrested in Europe.

EXTRAORDINARY AND EXCITING CHASE OP HIM BY A LIVERPOOL DEFECTIVE [From the Liverpool Mercury, Fob. 10.]

In August last, in the city of Paltimore, a very extraordinary swindle was perpotrated by a person named John S. Piehl, who kept a tavezu there, and who, by a series of adroit and apparently legal means, committed a number of frands. Among his victims was the quartermaster of the place, whose clerk he managed to swindle out of a receipt, on the ground of having contracted for a large number of horses, to the amount of $50,000. By this means he managed to forge the paymaster's name, and obtained an order on a back payable in twenty days, and with this document he was enabled to raise from the Citizens' Bank, Baltimore, to which he was introduced, a sum of $40,000. The day after it was discovered that the order was a forgory, and that Piehl had absconded. It was subposed that he had come to England. In September last Mr. Maguire, late Superintendent of Police, and now the bed of the Private Detective and Inquiry office, No. 7 Doran's lane, in this town, was applied to an the subject, and requested to take the affair into his bands and look after the forger, which he did, By a process known only to bimself, Mr. Maguire for an anticomment of the processory documents were procured from America and placed in the detective's hands who had gone to London and made inquiry about the movements of Piehl. Being fortified with all the necessary legal documents. Maguire processed to Prague a. dook up his father resides. A respectable firm in Liverpool had been instructed to give Mr. Maguire, any assistance in case the "wanted" party should turn up, and after some delay the necessary documents were processed to Prague a. dook up his fresher he father resides.
